

DESTINATION

the inn at dos brisas, home away from home

by Florencia Pe
Photography by Joe Baraban and Michael Stein

Looking for a weekend getaway and don't want to get on a plane? Looking for a relaxing New-Mexico-style retreat with a Texas touch? The Inn at Dos Brisas in Brenham, Texas is one ranch you don't want to miss! From the minute you drive onto the 400+ green-acre land, you dive into an exclusive, upscale experience that takes your everyday worries completely away.

The lodging is absolutely charming and serene. There are four private cabanas or "casitas" available, each with its own private access. Once you park your car at the driveway of your cabana, you're set with a golf cart to move around the wide terrain. Of course, once you enter your room, you won't want to come out! Chilled champagne, a burning fireplace, chocolate-covered strawberries, cozy robes and a full snack fridge await in you.

The Inn at Dos Brisas is also known for its exquisite cuisine, and I promise it's all about the culinary experience. Chef Jason Robinson prepares the most extravagant dishes for every meal in a very intimate atmosphere. Prepare your taste buds (and preferably go on an empty stomach) to enrich your palate with a five to eight course, specially prepared, meal and wine adventure. Chef Robinson combines an eclectic presentation with an eccentric gastronomical fusion that absolutely takes your breath away!

The open hacienda-type resort is also full of unique activities. Private spa sessions for couples are available in the privacy of your casita. Pamper yourself with a full one-hour Swedish massage while overlooking the horse paddocks and ponds, or schedule a private horseback riding session with a picnic lunch waiting for you along Peach Creek. Or simply enjoy the tranquility of the heated pool deck while tasting one of the many infused teas and cocktails of your choice.

The Inn at Dos Brisas takes great responsibility in organizing an unforgettable weekend escape for each guest. The personnel are highly trained to offer the best high-end quality service. The hotel is pet-friendly and the whole staff takes interest in the care of your mascot, from a comfy bed-pillow set for your best friend to fresh treats made by Chef Robinson himself!

Take advantage of this Chateaux-formula resort only an hour away from Houston for a pampered stay of a weekend or more.

For more information, contact Richard Jardin at 979.277.7750 or visit www.dosbrisas.com
Reservations only. Open Thursday – Sunday.