HOUSTON'S DINING MAGAZINE

We recently took a little road trip to the new and luxurious INN AT DOS BRISAS near Brenham. We don't often say it, but this time it's true: The place definitely lives up to its hype. The ambitious organic gardens are yours for touring, and chef JASON ROBINSON's tasting menu is exquisite. Stay overnight if the drive home seems daunting. Just be sure to book in advance, since there are only four casitas.
